BY THE FBI

Washington, District of Columbia
Virginia
May 10, 2014

UNKNOWN ATTEMPTED BANK ROBBER

DESCRIPTION

Height: 5'6"

Sex: Male

Race: Black

Age: 25 to 30 years old

Remarks: The subject is described as a black male with a thin build wearing jeans, a black jacket, and a tan baseball cap.

CAUTION

On Saturday, May 10, a subject attempted to rob two banks in Washington, D.C. and Alexandria, Virginia. At 10:45 am, the male subject entered the M & T Bank located at 2865 Alabama Ave., SE, in Washington, D.C., and passed a note to the teller that demanded money. Approximately three hours later, the same subject entered the Wells Fargo Bank located at 6300 Richmond Highway in Alexandria, Virginia, and again demanded money, this time implying that he had a weapon. Both times, the subject exited the bank without having received money.

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $5,000 for information that leads to the identification, arrest and conviction of this attempted bank robber.

The FBI Violent Crimes Task Force, the Metropolitan Police Department and the Fairfax County, Virginia, Police Department are investigating these attempted bank robberies and request that anyone with information call the FBI at 202-278-2000.
